BIO

Eric Louis is a DJ and producer with eclectic taste and refined skills in both areas. He began his career as an intern at Deeper Rekords, working with the iconic Manhattan DJ Jonathan Peters, known for his marathon weekly sets and multi-platinum remix of Whitney Houston's "My Love is Your Love." During this time, Eric honed his production skills, crafting edits that were played for thousands of revelers in Peters' sets.

Active in the NYC scene, Eric held a five-year residency and performed at numerous events in New York and beyond. In 2015, he won first place in a remix contest hosted by Victor Calderone, beating out 300 competitors. This win helped him gain international recognition and led to releases on prominent labels such as Nervous Records (NY) and Berlin's Get Physical. Balancing an awareness of music trends with a love for the underground, Eric launched his own imprint, Devilish Affair, in 2021 to showcase his latest dub-leaning sounds. His track "Waiting in the Rain" received major support from John Digweed, and "AM Dubs" was charted by Ryan Elliott in November 2022.

HAZY MEMORY - ERIC LOUIS (DEVILISH AFFAIR)
Bringing fresh dub and deep sounds from NY, Eric Louis's intake on dub and experimental techno strictly does not disappoint us.

"Hazy Memory" was released as early as April 9, 2022, but is still banging as ever as it brings cutting-edge production that is groovy with dubby solid elements. More releases are imminent on this label in late August by this artist. -- Magnetic Mag
